Part 2

Read the text about the Pintos and choose the correct answers.

The first one is done for you.

Hidden animals

This painting by Bev Doolittle is called 'Pintos'. A pinto is a name for a horse with a special colouring – white with brown spots or blotches. How many pinto horses can you find hidden, or camouflaged, in this setting of brown rocks and white snow? Animals use camouflage to hide and stay safe. Camouflage means that the colours and patterns on an animal's body are the same as the colours and patterns of the place where the animal is hiding. If the camouflaged animal does not move, it is hard for other animals to see it.

Example: Who is the painting by?

A Pintos.

B Bev Doolittle.

C Camouflage.

1 What does “pintos” mean?

A Any horse.

B Brown rocks.

C horse with special colours.

2 What does camouflage mean?

A That the animal lives in rocks and snow.

B The colours on the animal are the same as the place that it is hiding.

C The animal can live in the hiding place.

3 Why do animals use camouflage?

A To find food.

B To sleep.

C To hide and stay safe.

4 What happens if an animal doesn't move and is camouflaged?

A Other animals can't see it.

B Other animals can't hear it

C Other animals can't feel it.
